

CHEMICAL

Educational programs backed by leaders in the "Chemical Corridor" aim to prove a pathway for high school graduates to earn stackable credentials that will equip them with the skills immediately usable in the local industry.

Programs

- Process Operation Technology Short Certificate
 - Bishop State Community College
 - University of South Alabama Industrial Talent Development Program
- Associate of Applied Science Degree
 - Bishop State Community College
 - Coastal Alabama Community College
- Bachelor of Science in Industrial Management and Technology
 - University of South Alabama

Courses

- Intro to Process Technology
- Process Technology I - Equipment
- Safety, Health & Environment
- Process Quality
- Process Instrumentation
- Process Technology II - Systems
- Process Technology Skills Lab
- Process Technology III - Operation
- Process Troubleshooting